

Vivian Holliday

December 5, 1941 - August 19, 2016

Vivian Bloh Holliday, 74, passed away on Friday, August 19, 2016 at her home.

Born in Giddings, Texas, she was the daughter of the late William and Ida Wendler Bloh. Vivian was a retired educator, teaching business education at St. Johns High School in Darlington, SC and was of the Lutheran faith.

Surviving are her sons: Mike (Lisa) Roach of Greenville and Matt (Elizabeth) Roach of Pickens; brothers: Robert (Dee) Bloh of Winston Salem, NC and Bill (Marcia) Bloh of Conroe, TX; half-sister: Norma Howard of Fayetteville, NC and 4 grandchildren.

Services will be private.

Cemetery Details

Private Burial

Tribute Wall

CB

“ Aunt Vivian was a high-spirited, fun-loving and very caring person. There was always lots of laughter, and plenty of shenanigans when she was around! I loved hearing her laugh, and can still hear her now! She was such a hoot! I know she will be sorely missed. I know family was very important to her, and we can honor her by keeping in touch and staying close! Much love to you, Mike and Matt and families, and Uncle Bill, Uncle Robert, and Aunt Norma. She and Mom are enjoying peace and rest together. I can't help but wonder, though, what are they scheming now? I just know they are up to something... :-)

Celina McNally Blair

Celina Blair - August 24, 2016 at 07:32 PM

GC

“ To Vivian's family,
We were so shocked when Vivian called us only a little over a week ago and told us of her diagnosis. I just still can't believe that this happened so quickly. We are certainly remembering you all in our prayers. We enjoyed taking care of Vivian and will miss her! Glenda Crawford glenda crawford - August 21, 2016 at 06:39 PM