“ Von was a dear friend to our family and always loved others. He was a great teacher, and never changed through time. He always gave wise counsel and lived by the Word of God. He will be missed by his community, friends' and family. I am certain that it is not farewell but see you again in Paradise. May God continue to bless his family and friends during this time passing.

“ When I was younger, I attended Church with Von. He had such a warm and caring personality. It Did not matter how bad you were. Von would always try to be understanding and guide you in the right direction. The love for people that Von had and His love for Christ was just something that you could feel while standing in his presence. I hope to see you on the other side brother Von. I always thought a lot of you. Herbie
