“ Dear Family,
When more than 20 years ago, Wayne was the electrical subcontractor on our dream home in Travelers Rest, we didn't know that a long enduring relationship was in its early stages. Over the years when we needed help Wayne was always there. Always. During the past 14 months as we renovated our new "old" home home in Greenville, Wayne and Jason worked their magic to make some pretty dark spaces come to life with new lighting and other necessities. As it all came together, Wayne and I had conversations about things other than electricity and we agreed that over the years our working relationship had grown into one of true friendship. Fielding and I will certainly find someone to "fix" things but will be unable to replace the true friend we had in Wayne. We are saddened by the passing of a great friend and want all of you, his family, to know that we lift you up in our prayers.

With deepest sympathy,
Gally and Fielding Gallivan

“ Wayne was a groomsman in my parents' wedding (Alvin and Janice Powell) 54 years ago this month. They both admired Wayne and always spoke highly of him. The last time I saw Wayne was when my dad died 13 years ago, but my mom saw him last month. She said he was the same kind, thoughtful, friendly man she has always known.

*Vicki, Brian, and Robin,
We are so sorry for your loss.*

“ Vicki and family,
Many years ago, I stopped Wayne at church and told him there was part of him that shined, as if Jesus was making him glow! I'll never forget how seeing him that way, that day, really uplifted me. He was a good man! All of you will be in my prayers. May God grant you peace and comfort today and in the coming weeks and months.
