“ My husband, Frank McDonald, grew up with Bill: attended Travelers Rest High School. He was a year older than Frank. Bill, Frank and a few other guys were the "Gang (good) from Locust Hill". Bill was an usher at our wedding; Enoree Baptist Church, 1955. He will be missed by family and friends.

“ Mr. Butler will be so missed. I so enjoyed going to lunch or dinner with Mr and Mrs Butler and Mia and Olivia. Family was the most important to him. He was such a kind, sweet man. I admired him so for what a gentleman he was and how you could tell how much he loved his wife. She was his queen. It was such a pleasure to talk and laugh with them. I was honored to know him. I will never forget what a good man he was. May God give his family strength to endure their loss.
