“ My heart is full of precious memories! Your sweet smile, your words of encouragement, your support during the darkest times. I was blessed to call you my father in law for a short time in this life. I am forever changed by the unconditional love you have always shown. Rest in peace and save me a seat at your table so we can catch up.

“ Pops I love you so much I will never forget your loving smile or your back scratches. I'm so sorry you had to suffer for so long I would have done it for you if I could. You will always be my dad and I just want to say thank you for loving me when my parents did not and showing me what love was and who god was and is. I hope you know what you mean to me and how much I love you. One day I will get to hug you again in hevan what a glourious day that will be. I love you and miss you so much already.
