“ Earl was my friend since 1st grade (or earlier). We went through school together, joined the U. S. Army together (our numbers are 1 digit apart), and he was an usher in Delores and my wedding in 1958. Earl was a genuine friend. Carolyn, we pray for your comfort in the coming days, and Jennifer, my friend and former co-worker, God bless you all! With our love,

“ Earl was such a sweet, humble man. His devotion to God was evident in everything he did or said. We will be lifting the family in prayer.
