

William Max Howell

February 20, 1922 - January 13, 2012

William Max Howell, 89, of Travelers Rest, SC passed away on Friday, January 13, 2012 at Pendleton Manor in Greenville SC. Born in Burnsville (Yancey County) NC, he was the son of the late Granville Carson Howell and Mollie Louise Wilson Allen. Max as he was known, upon graduation from high school entered the United States Marines where he served in WWII, Korean Conflict and Vietnam. In 1967, Max retired from the Marines after 26 years of service attaining the rank of Master Sergeant. After his military career, Max attended Warren Wilson College in Swannanoa, NC where he studied Journalism. Soon after college, Max began a career in the hotel industry where he was the site manager for various hotel chains. Max was a man with a gentle spirit and was an active Mason until his health began to fail him. Graveside services with military honors will be held on Wednesday, January 18, 2012 at 2:00 p.m. at the Western Carolina State Veterans Cemetery in Black Mountain, NC.

Previous Events

Service

JAN 18. 2:00 PM.

Graveside