“ Dear Mark, Teresa and Shivers Family in TR,
We are remembering all of you today as the funeral time is near and pray that God's very special presence will grace this time. We thank God for the good life He allowed Mr. Shivers to live and the blessing that he was to so many people. The promise of eternal life is comforting to all of us, especially at this time of separation. We thank God for that life he gives us in Jesus.

“ Our deepest heartfelt sympathy and love goes out to the family of Mr. William. It is our sincere prayer that God will bless and give comfort to all of his family and friends. It was always a joy to be around him when he was in Swansea visiting his family especially here at our church. May God bless each of you.
