“ I am very sorry to hear Wilma passed away. You wont remember me but I was a younger friend of hers back when her children were little, as a matter of face Mark was a newborn just home from the hospital the day I met Wilma. Their daddy Jesse was friends with my daddy. I use to walk to her house and help take care of the kids, especially loving to hold the baby. They were all so cute. Wilma was a very pretty young woman. I couldn't believe she had so many little children. I am 58 now but I remember those days at her house like it was yesterday. I often wondered how they were doing, we moved away to Six Mile and I never saw any of them again. God bless you all. I am on Facebook and would love to be friends with the daughters and sisters. I see her boys have both passed away, I am sorry, I remember Earnest as a tall blonde ,the oldest of all, helping mama so well to keep the girls out of the road they lived near in TR. Im sorry to ramble on so.
