“ Donna, Lisa, Derek, and the Emory family, your daddy, papa, brother, was a good man who was dedicated to his family and his community. I was blessed to have known and loved him and your family for all of these years. He will be missed, but his life will not be forgotten, and his legacy will live on through the things that he passed on to each one of you. Especially in you, Derek. You stand as tall as the man you once stood beside, and you never had a clue about the shoes you were growing into. Hold onto all the time and memories, and I promise that it will be a comfort to you. May God’s grace, mercy, and love give you peace.
We will keep you in our thoughts and prayers. Deepest Condolences and Love,
Angie and Austin
